Perth

Free Day In Perth

Perth is the capital city of Western Australia. A delightful city which has the scale of a large country town. Perth has changed dramatically in the last few decades. With a population around the million-mark Perth, quite correctly, sees itself as a modern, dynamic city.

Perth is known for its great personal charm and beauty. The elegant riverside parks, the network of freeways and the languid beauty of the Swan River all combine to give the city grace and distinction. Today the city is a pleasant mixture of colonial and modern architecture. The city is noted for its fine parks and gardens many of which run along the banks of the Swan River allowing both sightseers and the ubiquitous jogger's pleasant views across the river.

Perth

Fremantle is Perth's port city, just a short drive south of the Perth City centre. Affectionately known by locals as Freo, Fremantle was originally Perth's access port for ships bringing supplies when Perth was just a colony. Today Fremantle is so much more, and while it is still the main port for Western Australia, over the years it has grown to embrace its own identity as a seaside city with a vibrant atmosphere. Time to enjoy the history of Fremantle, before returning to Perth.

To Albany

Our day begins travelling to the amazing Tree Top Walk (covered in shoes needed) . Walking high up in the treetops is a totally new experience for visitors to Western Australia's southern forests. Experience the excitement of exploring the canopy of the magnificent tingle forest.

This Tree Top Walk is a series of sixty-metre, lightweight steel trusses built on steel pylons to form a secure ramp.

Beginning at the Tingle Shelter, you can walk along a 420-metre-long steel-truss walkway which leads over a deep, red tingle gully. This walk is suitable for all walking capabilities. Because it is built on the side of a natural valley, the walkway rises up above the forest floor We head to Albany.
